Subject: RE: Baha Mousa Public Inquiry - Representation and First Directions Hearing

Dear Maria,

May I apologise for the rather tardy response. I had been of the view that representations to the Inquiry were to be made by proxy, through Messrs Kingsley Napley Solicitors.

I can confirm that no representations are to be made pursuant to the first issue, namely reporting restrictions. Our position is simply that the restrictions imposed throughout the Court Martial proceedings ought to continue.

In relations to the second issue, we can confirm that a joint submission will be made by Messrs Kingsley Napley in due course.

I trust that this information assists.

Yours sincerely,

Graeme Irvine
